

Humans, Nature and Creation: Crash Course World Mythology #6

Available at <https://youtu.be/T6f1-nEjDdM> or just youtube/google "Crash Course World Mythology 6"

1. Dogs were, if not the first, then among the first _____ animals, and they play an important role in mythology.

a. When and why did the domestication of dogs begin?

i. Some scientists are saying it was wolves that _____ rather than the other way around.

2. In the second chapter of _____, God grants humans control over the other earthly creatures.

a. How does this version of the story affirm human control over animals?

3. In a number of creation stories from Native American tribes, animals are _____ in creation, often acting as _____ or even as the key participants in creating the earth.

a. What is the Emergence Myth?

b. What is the Earth Diver Myth?

i. Just as important as being given real _____ in this creation story, it's the animals who both save human's progenitors and _____.

c. Native Americans perceive a _____ between animals and nature and humans than people from other traditions.

d. Biblical tradition has been interpreted by some as giving believers the right to _____ of nature as they please.

