Directions: In each quadrant, take notes on what this film can tell us about 4 main topics: 1) Lived experiences on the Oregon Trail (What was everyday life like for the emigrants as depicted by the film (struggles, routines, etc.))? 2) Gender dynamics of the settlers (What was the role of women? The role of men?) 3) Power dynamics between the guide and pioneers (Who held power? What examples demonstrate this?) 4) Relationship of settlers to Native Americans (What interactions do we see?
